

SEAL (Sobrato Early Academic Language) is a powerful English Learner-focused approach to education rooted at the intersection of research and educational equity.

Since 2008, SEAL has partnered with dozens of districts to provide comprehensive professional development to preschool and school district leaders, principals, and teachers. SEAL's professional development ignites changes in systems and practices that support language development, literacy, and engaging, joyful learning—for English Learners, and ALL students. The Dual Immersion Grant Program can provide districts with resources for high-quality professional development, SEAL is excited to offer three types of support for dual language program development and expansion.
